- WHERE: Walter P. Chrysler Museum, Auburn Hills, Michigan
- WHO: ALL Scouts (1st through 5th Graders)
- WHY: To prepare your child for a great Pinewood Derby Experience
- COST: FREE!

The Walter P. Chrysler Museum is hosting a Pinewood Derby Clinic to guide Scouts in constructing a race-ready car for the district's 2008 Pinewood Derby. The two-hour program will feature stations manned by experts in model design, manufacturing and finishing.

The Walter P. Chrysler Museum requires that one adult be present per Cub Scout. All Scouts and parents must be registered. Registrations are limited to 100 scouts each session, please register early.

Topics that will be covered include:

- Inspiration for design/designing your Pinewood Derby car
- Transferring your design onto the wood stock
- Rough & finish cuts of the stock
- Filing and sanding
- Painting, detailing and finishing the car
- How weighting your pinewood derby car affects speed
