The Walter P. Chrysler Museum is hosting a caravan for auto enthusiasts from the Auburn Hills Museum to the Ypsilanti Orphan Car Show in downtown Riverside Park Sunday, June 4.

The journey begins at 8 a.m. with a complimentary continental breakfast and self-guided tours of the Museum's three stories featuring vehicles bearing the Chrysler, Dodge, Plymouth, Jeep®, DeSoto, Nash, Hudson, Rambler and Willys marques.

Participants will embark on a leisurely, scenic drive to Ypsilanti's picturesque Riverside Park to view more than 400 remarkable vehicles on display at the Orphan Car Show. A suggested route of paved roads will be provided and reserved parking will be available at the show.
